TITLE

Students Satisfaction Survey Report on “Teaching-Learning Process, 2021 – 2022”

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

The IQAC, under the guidance of Jatindra Rajendra Mahavidyalaya Governing Body, planned to conduct an internal research survey on “Teaching-Learning Process” for the academic year 2021-2022, in order to determine the satisfaction level of the students regarding the same and to detect the failures of the administration and the faculty members for the purpose of further improvements. Therefore, the college authority planned to take the sample of 100 students randomly to be chosen from all the departments. The students were supposed to be provided with a set of 25 questionnaires against which they were to mark (✓) their labels of satisfaction such as excellent, very good, good, and average. The survey was designed to cover the following topics:

- The first part of the survey is designed for the teaching-learning process within the classroom covering the role of teachers, adaptation of ICT tools, syllabus, and the study resources.
- The second part of the survey dealt with the extracurricular activities the college and the department provides to the students such as internship, student exchange program, field visit opportunities, and future career goals, identification of strength and weaknesses of the students, responsibility and availability of teachers.
- The third section of the survey was based on college administration, facilities of basic facilities like clean lavatory, drinking water, sanitization like.
- The fourth part of the survey was about the information of the library and resources, encouragements to research study.
- And the last part of the survey focused on the environment and the practices of sustainability within the college campus.

Through this survey the IQAC wanted to know and understand their strengths and weakness in order to improve the teaching-learning process and to rectify the mistakes and weaknesses.

RESULTS

The IQAC of Jatindra Rajendra Mahavidyalaya was well prepared to conduct the survey research on the satisfaction labels of the students who were studying in the college. The result showed that above 50% of students were satisfied (excellent) overall but the college wanted to improve the percentage of excellence further from 50% to 80%. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and the nation's lockdown the college could not implement strategies and planning to improve parameter of excellence. Sample copy of survey response is attached here.
